Re: Illinois Commerce Commission Dkts. 00-0259, 00-0395, 00 .0461

Dear Mr. Fein and Ms. Hextell:

As you are aware from our letter dated January 24, 2001, NewEnergy is in breach of its Confidentiality Agreement with ComEd. Enclosed please find a copy of Commonwealth Edison Company's Motion Seeking Protection of Confidential and Proprietary Data and Sanctions relating to this breach. Aside from the remedies sought therein, NewEnergy is obligated to return all materials containing information received pursuant to that agreement. Accordingly, ComEd requests that NewEnergy return all copies of documents containing ComEd's Confidential or Confidential and Proprietary Information (including but not limited to testimony, exhibits, transcripts, data responses and briefs) to ComEd within five days of receipt of this letter. ComEd further requests that NewEnergy destroy all notes, working papers and other documents containing ComEd's Confidential or Confidential and Proprietary Information and certify to ComEd that such documents have been destroyed.
